5th Sunday of Easter - A
Morning Prayer - Week I

This is a shortened version of the office of Morning Prayer, but it retains all the elements of the service as sung at Holy Trinity each Sunday morning.

Thank you for joining us online.

We hope that in this uncertain time you will derive some spiritual benefit and comfort from this liturgy, as you anticipate the celebration of Mass from the Jesuit Institute at 09h00.

V. O Lord, open our lips

R. And we shall praise your name

The Office Hymn is sung by all

1.
Easter glory fills the sky!
Christ now lives, no more to die!
Darkness has been put to flight,
by the living Lord of light!

Seek not life within the tomb,
Christ stands in the upper room;
Risen glory he conceals,
Risen body he reveals!

3.
Though we see his face no more,
he is with us as before.
Glory veiled, he is our priest,
His true flesh and blood our feast.

James Quinn SJ

and make music with timbrel and harp.

For the Lord takes delight in his people.
He crowns the poor with sal-vation.
Let the faithful rejoice in their glory,
shout for joy and take their rest.

Let the praise of God be on their lips
and a two-edged sword in their hand,
to deal out vengeance to the nations
and punishment on all the peoples;

and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning, + is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. +
