Morning Prayer - Week IV

V. O Lord, open our lips

R. And we shall praise your name

The Office Hymn

1.
The day is filled with splendour
when God brings light from light, and all renewed creation rejoices in his sight.

The Father gives his children
the wonder of the world in which his pow'r and glory
like banners are unfurled

3.
With ev'ry living creature,
awaking with the day,
we turn to God our Father,
lift up our hearts and pray.

4.
O Father, Son and Spirit,
your grace and mercy send,
that we may live to praise you today and to the end.

Amen.

Antiphon

Jesus saw the great multitude
 and he was moved to compassion for them, because they were
 like a flock of sheep without a shepherd.

To make known to his people their salvation
 Through forgiveness of all their sins,
 The loving kindness of our God
 Who visits us like the dawn from on high.

Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel!
 He has visited his people and redeemed them.
 He has raised up for us a migh-ty saviour
 In the house of David his servant,

He will give light___
to those in darkness,
Those who dwell in the shadow of death,
And guide us into the way of peace.

As he promised by the lips of ho-ly men,
Those who were his prophets from of old.
A saviour who would free us from our foes,
From the hands of all who hate us.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son,
 and to the Ho-ly Spirit.
 As it was in the beginning, + is now and e-ver shall be,
 world without end.
 Amen.

So his love for our fathers is fulfilled,
 And his holy covenant remembered.
 He swore to Abraham our father to grant us +
 That free from fear, +
 and saved from the hands of our foes,
 We might serve him in holiness and justice +
 All the days of our life in his presence.

Jesus saw the great multitude
and he was moved to compassion for them,
because they were
like a flock of sheep without a shepherd.

As for you, li-ttle child,
You shall be called a prophet of God the most High.
You shall go a-head of the Lord
To prepare his ways before him.

Intercessions
