Solemnity of Christ the King - A Morning Prayer - Week I

V. O Lord, open our lips R. And we shall praise your name

Office Hymn

1.
To Christ the Lord of worlds we sing
the nations' universal king;
Hail, conquering Christ,
whose reign alone
over our hearts and souls we own.

May those who rule o'er men below
thee for their greater sovereign know,
and human wisdom, arts and laws,
in thee repose as in their cause.

3.
Let kingly signs of pomp and state
unto thy name be dedicate,
city and hearth and household be under thy gentle sceptre free.

Praise be to Christ whose name and throne
o'er every throne and name we own;
and equal praises still repeat
the Father and the Paraclete.
Amen.

Roman Breviary, tr T. W Shewring
Tune: Jesu dulcis memoria (adapted)

Antiphon 3

The Lord has given him power
and honour and kingdom;
every people, tribe and nation will serve him.

Sing a new song to the Lord,
his praise in the assembly of the faithful.
Let Israel rejoice in its maker, +
let Sion's sons exult in their king.
Let them praise his name with dancing +
and make music with timbrel and harp.

For the Lord takes delight in his people.
He crowns the poor with sal-vation.
Let the faithful rejoice in their glory,
shout for joy and take their rest.

Let the praise of God be on their lips
and a two-edged sword in their hand,
to deal out vengeance to the nations
and punishment on all the peoples;

Psalm 149

Tone: C. Upchurch

to bind their kings in chains
and their nobles in fetters of iron;
to carry out the sentence preor-dained:
this honour is for all his faithful.

Glory be to the Father and to the Son
and to the Holy Spirit,
as it was in the beginning, +
is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. +
A-men.

The Lord has given him power
and honour and kingdom;
every people, tribe and nation will serve him.
